Order for Expedited Sentencing Worksheet and Disclosure & Sentencing Dates

The defendant having been found guilty on count(s) 6 of the Criminal Indictment, an expedited sentencing worksheet is ordered, to include information regarding the Defendant's social history, criminal history, and a calculation of the actual or intended gain or loss amount resulting from the crime of conviction, namely, Contempt of Court, by violating a Court Order not to file another bankruptcy case, which Defendant did to avoid foreclosure proceedings on her home.

1. By January 16, 2017, the initial expedited sentencing worksheet must be disclosed to counsel.

2. By February 03, 2017, counsel must object in writing to the facts or state that there is no objection.

3. By February 10, 2017, the probation officer must submit to the judge the final sentencing worksheet with an addendum addressing contested issues.

4. Sentencing is set for February 17, 2017, at 10:40 a.m.

5. For counsel to attend interviews with the defendant, counsel must tell the United States Probation Officer immediately; within 5 days, counsel must supplement that oral request with one in writing.

6. The defendant must go immediately—with a copy of this order—to:

United States Probation Department
Room 2301, 515 Rusk Avenue, Houston
Telephone: (713) 250-5266

If you get this order after 5:00 p.m., report to the Probation Department no later than 10:00 a.m. on the next workday.

Signed at Houston, Texas, on December 20, 2016.
